

Sept 10, 1962

Dear Robert.

Well, apparently I was too optimistic in my last letter, since you say you thought I would be coming so soon.

The Russians are holding me up, and are giving me some trouble about the visas, so for now I can only wait. In general for an ordinary Russian, it's impossible to issue the USSR, simply because he wants too. However, I and my wife have the possibility because of the fact I am still an American citizen and have the U.S. passport.

My Russian documents are good only until Jan. 4, 1962, therefore you can expect that they will let me go before that date, since I will not extend the length of time on these documents after Jan 4, 1962.

however, the Russians have been known to hold people, against international law, and against their wills,
but as I say, "time will show".

Mamma did not write that letter
herself, but the words were hers,
I only translated them into English.
Mamma doesn't know any English at all, and at home we always speak Russian.

Robert Leo sounds like he is growing into a fine boy and Cathy is also quite a grown up little lady, already 4 years old,
It hardly seems possible, I remember when mother phoned me to say she was born, on Aug 22nd or 23rd, I was in Calif., we were getting ready to leave for Japan, and we did leave a few days ~~later~~ later.
A lot has changed since then!!
Well I hope everything is alright.

and your lock isn't giving you any more trouble. keep writing
Yours Brother
Lee

Enclosed are some
